7.1.4: Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Students from various castes, religions, and regions study together without discrimination because the institution believes in the equality of all cultures and traditions. We do not tolerate cultural, regional, linguistic, or other differences, despite the institution's diverse socio-cultural background and linguistic diversity.

Differences in community, socioeconomic status, or other factors. National festivals, birth anniversaries, and memorials to great Indian figures such as Mahatma Gandhi, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Dr. B.R.Ambedkar, Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, and Lal Bahadur Shastri. Every year on October 31, the institution observes Rashtriya Ekta Diwas (a pledge made by staff and students on National Integration Day). This promotes positive interaction among people of different racial and cultural backgrounds. There are various grievance redressal cells within the institute, such as the Student Grievance Redressal Cell and the Women Grievance Redressal Cell, which handle grievances without regard to anyone's racial or cultural background.

Field studies and tours to industries across India are organised by various departments. Students and faculty are exposed to a variety of cultures. Our institution offers National Sociocultural Exchange Programs.

The Institute benefits from the fact that, in addition to providing a solid academic foundation for the student body, the college is constantly working to develop them as better citizens of the country. In this regard, the institute fosters a sense of community among the student body through various practises and programmes in addition to providing professional legal education. Various faculties have always organised activities that both initiate and motivate students to engage in various practises that promote our nation's "Unity in Diversity." The College ensures that students participate enthusiastically in all such activities. Over the last five years, the college has made a concerted effort to increase student awareness and appropriate practises in the following areas:

Elements of National Identity: The College has always taken various steps to increase awareness of various elements of national identity. The College's number one priority is to spread the national message. The College celebrates Independence Day and Republic Day with great fanfare.

The NSS Committee organises and celebrates Constitution Day on an annual basis, thereby contributing to the spread of constitutional values and ideals.

Indian Citizens' Fundamental Duties, Directive Principles, and Rights: Faculty from various departments have organised a variety of academic and co-curricular activities to promote Indian citizens' Fundamental Duties, Directive Principles, and Rights.

Constitutional Obligations: The college has organised student-focused events such as paper, poster, and essay competitions, which have consistently drawn large student participation and raised students' awareness of various Constitutional Obligations.
